BIBLE STORY

Paul Teaches in Athens
(Acts 17:16-34)

REMEMBER THIS

“These are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.”
John 20:31, NIV

SAY THIS

Who can believe in Jesus?
I can believe in Jesus.

PARENT
CUE

WHAT YOU NEED:

A large piece of paper; crayons; old magazines (or printouts from computer); scissors; glue sticks

WHAT YOU DO:

Look through magazines with your child and find things that God made. Have them point to the picture and then you cut it out. Place the pictures you cut out, paper, and crayons on the table. Work together to create a collage by drawing things God made and gluing magazine pictures onto the paper. Hang the collage on the wall or refrigerator so you can talk about all the things God made.

WHAT YOU SAY:

“Everywhere we look, we can spy things God made! Let’s make a collage of things God made. Paul told the people in Athens that God made the world and that God made people—including you! Paul told the people about Jesus so they could believe in Him. Jesus wants to be my friend forever. Tell me, who can believe in Jesus? I can believe in Jesus.”

ACTIVITY: THINGS GOD MADE COLLAGE

PRAYER

“Dear God, there is no one else like You. Only You could make the whole world and everything in it. Only You could make people. Only You could make all of space and the stars, sun, moon, and planets. You are AMAZING, God! We want to thank You for all of the amazing things You made. And most of all, thank You for loving us so much that You gave us Jesus. We love You, God. In Jesus’ name, amen.”

MEMORY VERSE

“God’s grace has saved you because of your faith in Christ. Your salvation doesn’t come from anything you do. It is God’s gift.” Ephesians 2:8, NIV

LIFE APP

FAITH:
Trusting in what you can’t see because of what you can see

BIBLE STORY

Paul in Athens/Unknown God (Acts 17:16-34)

BOTTOM LINE

You can help others know Jesus.

ACTIVITY: DO YOU TRUST ME?

WHAT YOU NEED:

A bandana, scarf, thin towel, or adult-sized T-shirt (anything that can be used as a blindfold); a bunch of toys/stuffed animals

WHAT YOU DO:

Create an obstacle course using the toys, scattering them in a trail around a room. Show your kid the course. Tell them you’re going to lead them through the maze of obstacles, but they’ll have to trust that you’re telling them the right way to go.

Blindfold your kid and spin them around a couple of times. Using only the sound of your voice, guide your kid through the obstacle course. Say things like, “Do you trust me? Hop to the left. Now, slide two steps forward. Stop! Now, do the chicken dance! Okay. Follow me. Listen to my voice. Keep going to the right!”

Talk about the Bible story:

- o In our story today, where was Paul headed? (Athens)
- o Who was Paul? (Paul was a man who used to hate Jesus-followers. Then he met Jesus on the road to Damascus and became a Jesus-follower.)
- o Why was Paul going to Athens? (To tell the people there about Jesus)
- o Does God want us to follow Paul’s example and tell others about Jesus? (Yes! God wants us to lead people to Him just like we did through the obstacle course earlier. He wants us to tell others how to get to Him.)
- o How can we tell others about Jesus? (There are lots of ways to share the story of Jesus with others. We can invite them to a small group party, tell them the story of how we came to know about Jesus, or simply ask them if they’ve ever heard the story of Jesus. Sometimes, just being kind to someone others aren’t kind to shows people that we love Jesus.)
- o As a family, let’s talk about some ways we can help others know Jesus. We can volunteer to mow the neighbor’s yard. We can invite our neighbors to church (or send them digital resources, like the one you’re using now). We can love others whether they’re similar to us or different from us. There are so many ways we can help others know Jesus.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCE

If your kid has additional questions about faith or wants to talk about what it means to start a relationship with Jesus, we have a resource called The Salvation Conversation Guide for free download. Whether or not you have a faith of your own, you can use this guide to walk your kid through what it means to be in God’s family forever.

PRAYER

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

“God, we know You always hear us when we pray. Right now, we pray that we would lead others to You. We pray that the way we treat people inside AND outside of our home would show people that we love You. We pray You would give us the courage to share the story of Jesus whenever we can. Thank You for Paul’s example in the Bible, and most of all, thank You for Jesus. We need You, God, and we love You! Amen.”

ACTIVITY: Amazing Race

WHAT YOU NEED: A few chairs or stools (kitchen table sized), something to use for a blindfold (bandana, scarf, thin t-shirt), and a timer (optional)

WHAT YOU DO: As much as possible, clear out some space in a room and scatter around the chairs or stools from one side to the other.

Blindfold your kid and put them on the opposite side of the room from you. Using only the sound of your voice, guide them through the chairs. Say things like, "Do you trust me? Okay, take two steps to the left. Stop! Now, one small step to the right. One more small step. STOP! STOP!"

(You can make it sound a lot more complicated than it really is, giving them extra directions between chairs.)

When they're finished, it's your turn! Put on the blindfold and follow the sound of your kid's voice from one end of the room to the other. If you're feeling competitive, use a timer and see who can complete the maze the quickest!

Talk about the Bible story:

- o What stood out to you the most about today's story? (Discuss)
- o Why do you think Paul was so passionate about telling others about Jesus? (Because of his experience on the road to Damascus; Because he'd once hated Jesus-followers and now he was one; Because of all that Jesus had done for him. There is no "right" answer.)
- o Has Jesus done something for you? (Yes! He died on a cross for me. He loves me. He hears my prayers. He gives me what I need when I need it.)
- o Like Paul, we have so many reasons to tell others about Jesus. Think back to our activity earlier with the chairs. How is what we did similar to telling others about Jesus? (Sometimes it takes someone else to lead you to what you need. Talk more about this with your kid, letting them share their thoughts.)
- o How can you help others know Jesus? (Invite them to small group (even if it's online), simply tell them the story of Jesus, ask them if you can pray for them, tell them the story of how you met Jesus.)
