Goes to Egypt
(Genesis 37; Jeremiah 1:5)

Remember This

“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the Lord.”
Jeremiah 29:11, NLT

Say This

Who has a plan for you?
God has a plan for me.

Activity

Hunting for Ice Cream

What You Need

Masking tape/painter's tape and 12 paper plates (or napkins, sheets of paper, etc.)

What You Do

Before the Activity: Use the tape to create a large bowl outline on the floor. Hide the scoops of ice cream (paper plates) around your room.

During the Activity: Show your kid the “bowl” you created on the floor. Explain that there are 12 “ice cream scoops” hidden around the room for them to find. When they find one, they bring it to and place it in the “bowl.”

What You Say

“Do you know what I see on the floor? An empty bowl! Do you know what's missing? Ice cream! Hidden around the room are TWELVE scoops of ice cream. How many scoops? (Pause.) Twelve! They look like this. (Hold up paper plate.) I have a plan! Search all around the room. When you find one, bring it back and put it in our bowl.”

During the Activity: “Keep searching! Remember, we need to find all twelve. You can do it!”

After the Activity: “Let's count our ice cream scoops together. (Count together.) Way to go! You found all twelve. There were twelve brothers in the Bible story we watched today. One of those brothers faced some crazy stuff. What was his name? (Pause.) Yes, his name was Joseph. But Joseph knew that Someone had a plan for him. Who had a plan for Joseph? (Pause.) That's right! God had a plan for him. God has a plan for us, too. Who has a plan for you? God has a plan for me. Yes, He does!”

Prayer

“Dear God, thank You for (child's name). Thank You for the way You made them with special thoughts and abilities. I pray as they grow up, they will dream big, work hard, and always trust that You love them and have a plan for them, no matter what happens. We love You, God. In Jesus' name,

Proverbs 17:17, NIV

Bible Story

Two people are better than one
(Ecclesiastes 4:9-12)

Bottom Line

Choose your friends carefully.

Activity

Better Together

WHAT YOU NEED:

Timer, six shirts, random toys, kitchen chairs, broom and dustpan

What You Do

Tell your child you're going to play a game. They'll get to do a list of tasks and you'll time them. Then you'll do those same tasks again, but you'll do them together and see if your time gets better!

Get ready for the following tasks (i.e. unfold shirts, scatter toys, move chairs away from the table, etc.), and then time your child doing each of the tasks on their own.

- Perfectly fold six shirts
- Pick up and put away toys
- Tuck in all the kitchen chairs
- Sweep half the kitchen using the dustpan
- Organize one kitchen drawer

Record all the times on a sheet of paper. Say, "You did those things so fast! Now, let's do them together and see how quick we are!"

Complete each task together and time how long it takes. The times should be faster. Once you're finished, record the times on the same sheet of paper as the others. Say, "Look how much faster we were together. We can get so much done when do things together."

Talk about the Bible Story

In the video today, we talked about how much better it can be when we do things together. Is there a particular friend that you like doing things with?

What makes that person a good friend?

Do you think it matters who you choose as a friend?
(Yes, because our friends influence us. We start to talk like them and act like them. So we should choose our friends carefully.)

What kind of friend are you? What kind of friend do you want to be?

Say, "Remember, it matters who you choose to be friends with. If you choose friends who disobey, you'll probably disobey. If you choose friends who work hard, you'll probably work hard. Choose your friends carefully."

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"God, thank You for being the best example of a good Friend. You love us so much that You sent Your Son, Jesus, to die for us. You forgive us when we mess up. And You listen when we talk to You. Help us to be a good friend, too. Help us to be generous, to forgive, and to listen well. Help us to look for people who do those same things for us. Help us to choose our friends carefully. In Jesus' name we pray, amen."

Key Question

What makes someone a good friend?

Activity

Finding Friends

What You Need

Paper and pencil

What You Do

Draw the outline of a body on a sheet of paper. Then give your child the pencil and ask them, "What do you think makes a good friend?" Prompt them to write down (inside the body outline) all the qualities they look for when they're choosing friends.

When they finish, ask them to choose two qualities and tell you why they wrote those down. Then ask them to go back and put a circle around any qualities THEY'VE shown as a friend over the last week.

Engage your child in a conversation about the ways they've been a good friend over the last week.

Do you think it matters who you choose as a friend? (Yes, because our friends influence us. We start to talk like them and act like them. So we should choose our friends carefully.)

We've already talked about what makes someone a good friend. Look at what you wrote down. Which three things do you think are the most important qualities of a good friend, and why?

What kind of friend are you?

What kind of friend do you want to be?

Say, "Remember, it matters who you choose to be friends with. If you choose friends who disobey, you'll probably disobey. If you choose friends who work hard, you'll probably work hard. Choose your friends carefully."
